Tickets Sell Out for Glitzy Boots and Ball Gowns Gala on Feb. 8
Infant Crisis Services to welcome over 1,000 to popular charity event to benefit hungry babies and toddlers

OKLAHOMA CITY, January 28, 2025 – Bank7/Haines Capital, the Chickasaw Nation, and Quintessa Marketing are delighted to present the 16th annual Boots and Ball Gowns Gala benefiting Infant Crisis Services on Saturday, Feb. 8 at the Oklahoma City Convention Center. More than 1,000 supporters are expected at the sold-out event, which is the largest fundraiser for the organization.

“We are very excited and grateful for our sponsors and attendees,” said Miki Farris, co-founder and executive director at Infant Crisis Services. “It will be a very fun evening that enables us to feed and diaper thousands of needy babies and toddlers in central Oklahoma.”

The much-anticipated charity event is known for its playful take on glitz and glam. This year’s theme is “Glitter Gulch,” Old Vegas with a western touch. Guests will enjoy a night of cocktails, dinner, raffle, live auction and dancing to music by The Grooveline Dallas.

Boots and Ball Gowns is made possible by Presenting Diamond Sponsors Bank7/Haines Capital, the Chickasaw Nation, and Quintessa Marketing; and Turquoise Presenting Sponsors Caption Partners, MidFirst Bank, Mack Energy Company, TKO Energy Services, and Valor Bank. This year’s Gala Marshals are Katty Gasbarra and Meredith Woods. Proceeds from the gala provide food, formula and diapers for babies and toddlers in the metro region and 29 counties across the state.

About Infant Crisis Services

Infant Crisis Services, a 501(c) (3) nonprofit organization, provides life-sustaining food, formula, and diapers to babies and toddlers in times of crisis because no baby should go hungry. Founded in 1984, Infant Crisis Services is the only formula and diaper bank of its kind in the metro-area, serving more than 25,000 babies and toddlers in Oklahoma each year. Its unique BabyMobile program expands the mission into 29 counties across the state. In the organization’s 40 years of service, over 400,000 little ones have received essential items for their development, with the help of the community.
