Infant Crisis Services BabyMobile in Cheyenne on June 22

Free formula and diaper distribution comes to Roger Mills County

OKLAHOMA CITY, June 17, 2026 – The Infant Crisis Services BabyMobile, a mobile formula and diaper pantry, will make a stop Monday, June 22, in Cheyenne at Minnie R. Slief Library. Children younger than four are eligible to receive a week's worth of diapers, baby wipes, and formula or food – free of charge.

Infant Crisis Services developed the unique BabyMobile service to break down the transportation barrier that prevents many families from receiving assistance. This trip will be the first to Roger Mills County and the nonprofit is thrilled to expand its service to now include 33 counties.

The BabyMobile will serve clients first come, first served on a drive-thru basis from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. The adult present should be the parent or legal guardian but does not have to bring the baby.

Infant Crisis Services provides this assistance a maximum of four times per calendar year for each child. Visits must be at least a week apart. Visits to the nonprofit's office in Oklahoma City and to the BabyMobile count toward the four visits.

The BabyMobile schedule may change due to adverse weather conditions. For the current schedule and updates, families can call 405-528-3663.

“Storm” is the newest addition to the BabyMobile fleet at Infant Crisis Services.
